In short, WE MAINTAIN THAT THIS IS GOVERNMENT OF WHITE MEN, BY WHITE MEN FOR WHITE MEY, AND, THOUGH WHITE MEN MAY ABUSE AND ALTER IT, they cannot MAKE IT DIFFER-ENT in its essential characteristic of a NATION O' WHITE MEN.

THE WORK WE HAVE DONE. These are the principles we support, and why. We have done much to reore and consolidate the Conservative and Democratic elements in the Statemore than all the rest of the State press cknowledge and applaud. We have made the two Democratic parties one; we have promoted the harmony and solidarity of the people. We are not content to panse in an uncompleted work. We aim to do more, portion of the party, it can be said that we had the manliness to express and naintain our views, and that no prospect of pecuniary gain or political asndancy drew us from the plain duty of telling all Democrats the true policy a be adopted. Our broader view and nger experience enabled us to foretell and declare the course to be followed by the National party in convention. The sustained and presented the exact policy and pri ciples to minute detail, pro unigate by this paper a year ago, and standing now upon that platform we appeal with confidence to the people, as we have been, we shall be. frankness is the unflinching duty of a olitical journal. We may err but we never deceive.

THE WORK BEFORE US. We have a great work before us. We deny that nothing remains to be done lu while unything remains to be done. The ides of November are not passed. The State is not yet redeemed. When we can count one hundred thousand majority for Seymonr and Blair we may then claim a victory. Nor is this all. There are internal as well people of Kentucky should guard. Nothng tempts to extravagance like a full treasury. The State of Kentucky has that. It is the people's money. If from taxation, not wasted in speculating. Last year public journals professing Dethis in State aid to railroads-a policy expressly forbidden in the State Constionly paper that raised a warning cry to ave the people's money from this extravagance. Nor can we be safe while a purnal professing Democracy urges the galizing of negro testimo y the same arguments that Radicals suffrage. "In a well known Parisian saloon the conversation turned the other day on the question of peace or war. Some one remarked that the Emperor's language is very pacific, and that there is nothing to justify the supposition that it does not express his real thoughts. Upon this a certain dignitary, who played an important part in the Italian war, rejoined: 'My dear sir, on the day before war was declared against Austria I was at the house of the Princess Stefanie, of Baden, the ann of the Emperor Napoleon. This lady read to me a letter she had received the day before from her imperial nephew, in which he assured her that he sincerely desired peace, and that there would be no war.
